

Hospital Admissions And Readmissions Overview

The US healthcare sector (1999-2008) is currently grappling with the financial and operational burden of chronic disease management, specifically diabetes. With hospital readmissions serving as a primary quality benchmark under the Affordable Care Act, healthcare institutions are under increasing pressure to identify at-risk patients early to avoid costly penalties and improve long-term care outcomes.

Select column first

Select column first

Select column first

Total no of Patients

14116

30-Day Readmission Rate

13.20%

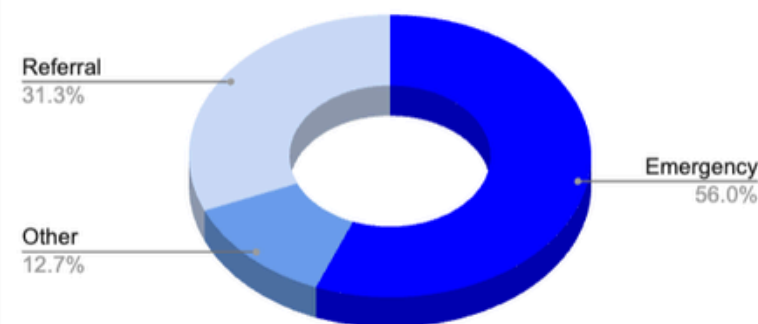

Total Revenue Leakage

$20,493,000

Untested Rate

83.10%

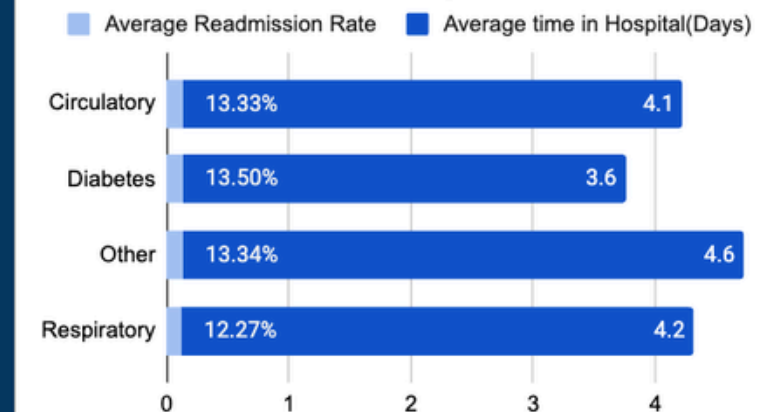

Readmission by Admission Type

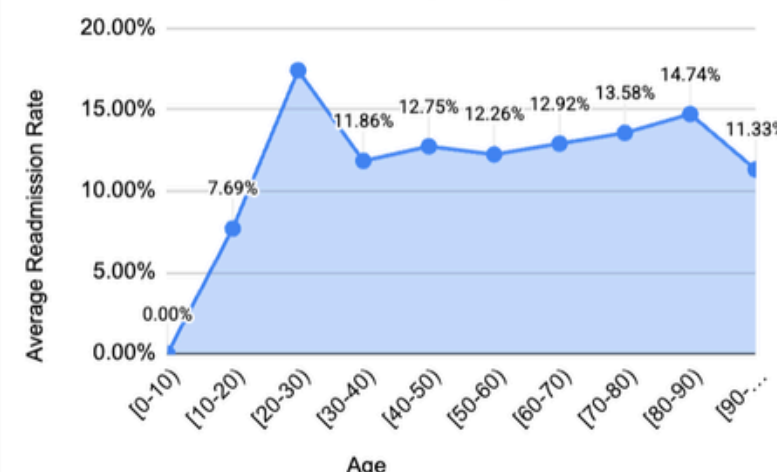

Cost vs Risk by Readmission Rate

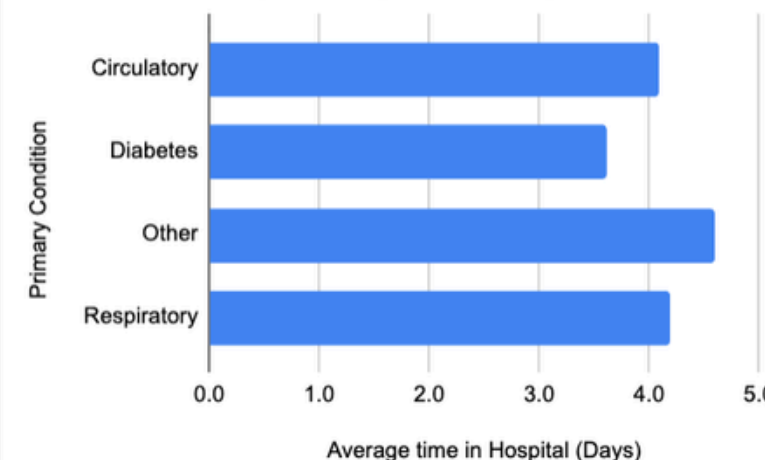

Readmission Rate by Condition

Readmission Rate by Age

Time in hospital by Primary Condit...

Discharge Location Readmission...

